To

THE ~~CHIEF~~ General SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MYSORE.

SIR,

I forwarding herewith for the information of Government an extract from the diary of the Assistant Superintendent of Police, Tumkur, for the week ending 27th July 1895 bringing to notice the cruel way in which bullocks are treated by the grain merchants of Tumkur, I have the honor to state that Regulation No. I of 1895, a Regulation for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, is applicable only to the City of Bangalore and it may I think, with advantage be extended to the Mysore City and all the District Head Quarter Towns in the Province.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most Obedient Servant,

M Ramchandra Rao

Inspector General of Police.

Extract from the Diary of the Assistant Superintendent of Police Tumkur District for the week ending 27th July 1895.

Wednesday 24th. Attended office and disposed of routine work &c. A gentleman of Tumkur asked me to day if nothing could be done to put a stop to the cruel way in which the teams of bullocks belonging to certain grain merchants of this place are treated in conveying the grain to the Railway Station. Each team is made to draw from 35 to 40 sacks of grain, weighing between 90 and 100 maunds and not the least mercy is shown them. I was informed that one bullock fell down under its load this morning and was in consequence set upon by 4 men with sticks who beat it severely, it being quite unable to get up. My informant tells me that he eventually went to the men and compelled them to remove some of the sacks from the waggon after which the poor beast was able to get up. This, I am told, is an every day occurrence.

I have myself seen the bullocks straining up the station hill under enormous loads and afterwards raced back to the Town as fast as they can go. They have to work moreover from before Sunrise till after sunset.

It seems a pity that the act for the Prevention of Cruelty of Animals is not in force all over the Province, otherwise I don't see what can be done to prevent Cruelty of this sort.
